Willkommen

Come and experience a touch of the old world in the heart of the new world.

This guesthouse was created and designed by Franz Johannes Kessler and built by Franz and his wife, Kay over a three-year period – along with a tremendous amount of help from family and friends. The design was inspired by German Guesthouses we have enjoyed.

Experience a taste of the old world in one of our guestrooms, themed after one of the old Germanic kingdoms. While many of these areas are not part of modern Germany (Alsace, Basel, Tyrol), they are part of the old German speaking kingdoms and reflect eight hundred years of our family history.

Each of our eight guestrooms has complete, private bathroom facilities, including one that is handicap accessible.
